PRESENTATION

This theatre of miniature objects uses plastic figurines 5 cm tall, Which play valiantly the balcony scene in Romeo and Juliet .

Behind this décor, the size of a television, two jolly fellows Mathias Piquet Gauthier and Luc Miglietta bring this fairy tale in miniature to life. Playing the parts of the figurines and manipulating tiny machines full of wheels, wires and spectacular entertaining intimist effects which make up the identity and the originality of the Théâtre du Vide-Poche” .

Le TVP is also an artistic performance, like a picture, that offers different levels of interpretation. Reaching out to touch people of all ages. Combining classical tragedy with recreational eccentricity.
